Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-4, 6, 10-11, 13-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stewart.

Stewart discloses a method to facilitate network-based shopping on an auction web site where there is communication between a network-based auction facility and a seller (para 0057). Bidders are recorded as qualified to participate before the bidder may bid (para 0099, 0100).

It would have been obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art to substitute "authorized" for what is described by Stewart since the teaching in Stewart is to a "qualified to participate" and "approval" that is considered within the ordinary meaning of authorized. Stewart also teaches the creation of a legally binding contract (para 0108) which also implicitly provides "authorization". Since the seller enters into a bidding agreement there is present a "request to authorize".

Art Unit: 1762

Stewart discloses communication of a seller request to authorize bidders to bid on a sale listing (para 0010). The buyer custom catalog disclosed by Stewart (para 0061) is considered within the definition of a "personalized web page".

3. Claims 7-8, 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stewart as applied to claims above, and further in view of Friedland et al.

Friedland et al discloses bidding history (fig 8) and restriction requirements (fig 6)

It would have been obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art to include bidding history to Stewart because Stewart teaches a live auction as one type of auction for the exchange of goods (para 0071).

It would have been obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art to include restriction requirements to Stewart because Stewart teaches such as requirements of the transaction process (para 0065).

4. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stewart as applied to claims above, and further in view of Walker et al.

Art Unit: 1762

Stewart does not disclose a sales listing that includes an events listing.

Walker et al discloses events listing (col 1, lines 44-60).

It would have been obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art to include a sales listing as disclosed by Walker et al to Stewart as the substitution of one type of commodity for another.

5. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Friedland et al in view of Stewart as applied to claims above, and further in view of Kumar et al.

Friedland et al in view of Stewart does not disclose adding and removing an authorization restriction.

Kumar et al discloses adding and removing an authorization restrictions ( para 0044, 0048).

It would have been obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art to include adding and removing an authorization restrictions to Friedland et al in view of Stewart because Kumar et al teaches that business conditions may change over time (para 0044).

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The term "particular" does not further distinguish over the prior art of record. Since Steward discloses authorization for all sale listings, this encompasses a "particular" listing.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
